Perthshire

Day 1

1. Scone Palace – has an exciting and colourful history. Fifteen hundred years ago it was the capital of the Picts. It has also been the seat of parliaments and the crowning place of the Kings of Scots, including Macbeth and Robert the Bruce. It houses an outstanding collection of antiques, paintings and rare artefacts and the grounds are renowned throughout the world. Excellent coach parking.

3. Perth Art Gallery & Museum – one of the oldest museums in the UK with more than half a million objects. The permanent displays explore the artistic, social and natural history of Perthshire. Visitors can also find some more surprising objects on display such as the fragments of a meteorite that crashed into Tayside almost 100 years ago.

4. Fergusson Gallery – the gallery celebrates the life and work of the Scottish Colourist John Duncan Fergusson and his wife Margaret Morris, a ground breaking modern dancer. Sketchbooks, costumes and photographs illuminate the fascinating lives and love of these two remarkable artists, whose marriage lasted almost half a century.

5. Branlykn Gardens – discover a magnificent garden with an impressive collection of rare and unusual plants. Among them is the Himalayan blue poppy, meconopsis x seldoni and rare cedrus. Seasonal highlights include the renowned collection of primulas, alpines and rhododendrons in May and June while in the autumn the garden comes to life with the fiery red Acer palmatum.

Day 2

1. Stanley Mills – discover one of the best-preserved sites of the 18th-century Industrial Revolution. This cotton mill powered by the river Tay produced textiles for 200 years. The visitor centre with its hi-tech interactive exhibits tells the stories of those who worked here and the products they made. Coach parking on site and groups welcome.

2. Blair Castle & Garden – discover the ancient seat of the Dukes of Atholl and home of Atholl. Highlanders. Full of Scottish cultural history, architectural design and period furnishings. See the Victorian ballroom, decorated with 175 pairs of antlers and the entrance hall which features weapons used at the Battle of Culloden.

3. Pitlochry Dam Visitor Centre – brand new for 2017, SSE’s Pitlochry Dam Visitor Centre showcases the rich history of hydroelectricity in the north of Scotland and how it transformed lives. See Pitlochry’s ‘fish ladder’ which was integral to the design for the early hydro electricity scheme. Groups welcome.

4. House of Bruar – just off the A9, 8 miles north of Pitlochry with excellent coach parking. Superb shopping awaits in the “Harrods of the North”. Sitings like a castle at the foot of the spectacular Bruar Falls, and widely acknowledged as Scotland’s most prestigious independent store. House of Bruar houses a great range of country clothing, gifts and food.

Day 3

1. Dewar’s Aberfeldy Distillery – hear the extraordinary tale of John Dewar & Sons and discover the inspiring story behind America’s top selling Scotch whisky. Distillery and warehouse tours available throughout the day, along with a unique visitor centre providing interactive challenges and access to fascinating archives. Brand store offers exclusive bottling and there’s also a café serving local produce.

2. Blair Castle & Garden – discover the ancient seat of the Dukes of Atholl and home of Atholl. Highlanders. Full of Scottish cultural history, architectural design and period furnishings. See the Victorian ballroom, decorated with 175 pairs of antlers and the entrance hall which features weapons used at the Battle of Culloden.

3. Iain Burnett Highland Chocolatier – sample award-winning chocolates of outstanding and exquisite quality. Explore all and learn of Iain Burnett’s artisan chocolates in the fascinating exhibition about gourmet chocolate, browse the elegant showrooms and experience the magical coffee and chocolate house. Advance booking advised.

4. Cluny Gardens – an exceptional woodland garden sustaining many unusual plants, red squirrels and the UK’s widest conifer. A secluded, unique woodland garden situated in the heart of Scotland, overlooking the scenic Strathtay valley. Advanced booking required for up to 36 seat coaches. Toilet facilities will be made available in the house to coach parties, by prior arrangement.

Day 4

1. Drummond Castle Gardens – one of the finest formal gardens in Europe and largest of its type in Scotland. One of the most interesting features is the multi-façeted sundial designed by John Mylne, Master Mason to Charles I. The gardens recently featured in Outlander. Advance booking advised for coach tours. Familiarisation trips also welcome.

2. Famous Grouse Experience at Glenturret Distillery – a 5-star rated attraction open all year for guided tours of Scotland’s oldest distillery. Enjoy a range of tours, an award-winning interactive show, café, shop and even a dram of Scotland’s finest whisky poured in a specially designed glass.

3. Loch Leven Larder – an award-winning family-run farm, restaurant, deli and retail shop situated 3 miles of the M90 near Kinross – easily accessible from all over Scotland. A unique visitor experience with personal service, differing dining options, a well-stocked deli and a nature trail that is teeming with wildlife. Groups welcome with advance booking.
