Callendar House

Your clients can enjoy a taste of history with a free visit at Callendar House on the outskirts of Falkirk. In the restored 1825 Kitchen, costumed interpreters create an interactive experience with samples of early-19th century food providing added taste to stories of working life in a large household. Your clients can also experience an elegant afternoon tea in the Drawing Room, where they will tuck into a sumptuous selection of sweet and savoury treats with a stunning selection of teas.

The Church of the Holy Rude

Take your clients on a free tour of the second oldest building in Stirling after the castle. It was founded in 1129 during the reign of David I (1124 - 1153) as the parish church of Stirling. Due to its close links with the castle, the church always had the support and patronage of the Stuart Kings, especially in the 15th, 16th and early 17th centuries, and is the only church in the United Kingdom other than Westminster Abbey to have held a coronation and still be a living church today.

Dunblane Cathedral

Dunblane Cathedral is a beautiful medieval church dating back to the 12th-century. The stunning Gothic exterior, conserved by a 19th century restoration, hides a past of neglect and renewal. Your clients can explore Dunblane Cathedral for free, gaze up at the four-storey red sandstone tower – the oldest part of the church, see the weathered interior walls of the nave, which had no roof for 300 years and walk among the choir stalls dating from the 1400s, some of the finest of their type in Scotland.

Dollar Glen

Lying above the town of Dollar in Clackmannanshire, Dollar Glen offers your clients exhilarating walks, deep gorges, cascading waterfalls and an abundance of plants and wildlife. The area has been a popular destination for walkers since the Victorian era. Here visitors can explore the banks of the Burns of Sorrow and Care or try to storm Castle Campbell, the 15th-century stronghold of the Earls of Argyll, standing high overlooking the gorges and tree-lined slopes.

Castle Campbell

Formerly known as the Castle of Grooms, the 15th-century fortress of Castle Campbell is dramatically situated above Dollar Glen. The oldest part is a well-preserved 15th-century tower around which other buildings were constructed, including an unusual loggia. Your clients can explore Castle Campbell's visitor centre, cobbled courtyard and interpretation displays. What was once the ideal situation for the lowland stronghold of a powerful clan can today be an idyllic setting for wedding ceremonies between the months of April and October.
