Inchmahome Priory

Cross Scotland's only lake, Lake of Menteith, to explore a peaceful, wooded island chosen as a monastic sanctuary. Robert the Bruce sought solace at Inchmahome Priory and Mary Queen of Scots found safety here as a child. Your clients will soak up the idyllic setting as they approach Inchmahome Priory by boat. Here visitors can admire finely decorated features like the processional doorway of the church or take time to walk around this haven abundant with wildlife and flowers.
